Cancellation:

The cancellation fees are 60 % of the full price of the seminar 1 month before the start of the seminar , 80% 14 days before the start of the seminar and 100% 4 days before the start of the seminar. If the organisers cancel the seminar, the price of the seminar will be paid back in full. No further claims can be asserted from this.

Commitment:

Every participant of the seminar is fully responsible for all he does, he receives or gives during the seminar. The organisers and lecturers do not assume liability for injuries, which occur during, before or after the seminar. For teenage participants the parents assume liability with their signature on the registration form and declare the organisers and lecturers free from liability.

Placement of Contract/Registration:

The participant declares with his signature on the registration form that he has read these conditions of contract and that he agrees with these conditions of contract.

Authorisation of Teaching:

The attendance of the seminar DOES NOT INCLUDE AN AUTHORISATION OF TEACHING and the gained knowledge and abilities are only allowed to be used in a private context, they are not allowed to be imparted in a context of teaching, business or seminar.

Accommodation and Food:

The organisers act as agents for accommodation and food. The costs for accommodation and food are not included in the price of the seminar. The price for the accommodation is levied by the particular supplier locally. Without an early reservation we cannot grant accommodation and food. The accommodation in the selected room cannot be granted. The distribution of the rooms is incumbent upon the organisers and will be done in chronological order of the registrations.

Miscellaneous:

The techniques being taught in the seminars do not serve to diagnose, to replace drugs or a medical treatment. We also do not treat sickness. For this doctors are trained and we leave this matter to them. We are working with the balance of energy between Yin/Yang and the Qi (energy of life) in the body.
